EYES OF SOUTHWEST BATTLE THIS WEEK

BY MAX B. SKELTON Associated Press Staff Writer. John Barnhill's Arkansas Razorbacks, who were not given much of a chance at the season's start, this week find themselves in their fifth game of the Southwest conference title chase and faced with an opportunity to throw the conference into one of its wildest championship struggles.

The Porkers will tackle the powerful Rice Owls at Little Rock. A defeat would all but eliminate, Arkansas but a victory would leave the Ozark eleven with a record of four wins and one defeat and only Southern Methodist on deck for a homecoming game at Fayette-

Amendment No. 3

The Good Roads Amendment Because It Guarantees:

- 1. The use of motor vehicle registration fees and gasoline taxes for school and road purposes.
- 2. Constitutional allotment of one-fourth of the gasoline taxes to the schools.
- 3. Funds for securing the right-of-way, construction, maintenance and policing of all public roadways.
- 4. Retirement of county and road district bonds.
- 5. Continuation of legal refunds on non-highway gasoline.
- 6. Present share of motor vehicle registration fees to counties.
- 7. THE ULTIMATE CONSTRUCTION OF AN ADE-QUATE SYSTEM OF STATE AND FARM ROADS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS.

"From my study of road building problems, as County Judge, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Lieutenant Governor, and Governor, I am convinced that the Good Roads Amendment should be adopted on November fifth." — GOV-ERNOR COKE R. STEVENSON.

"The adoption of the Good Roads Amendment on November 5th will establish a sound financial policy upon which our road planning agencies may base their plans." -- BEAUFORD H. JESTER, Democratic Nominee for Governor.

"It is my firm and considered belief, as a citizen and as Chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, that the passage of this Good Roads Amendment is to the best interest of all Texans, and for that reason. I am for it and advocate its passage." -JOHN S. REDDITT, Chairman, Texas Highway Commis-510n.

OTHER ENDORSEMENTS:

Judge Sid Caillavet, President County Judges and Commissioners Association.

Senator Allan Shivers, Democratic Nominee for Lieutenant Governor.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer.

Medical Marvels

By W. P. BROWN Of Johnson's Pharmacy

The war has produced miracles of production, of valor and of self recrifice. It has also stepped up discovery in the medical field.

Cut off from sources of supply, surgeons, laboratory technicians, research people, have used the resources of this and Allied countries to produce undreamed of specifics to cure and to relieve human suffering.

These discoveries are being made available to the civilian front as rapidly as possible. Medical science has made tremendous advances

These 15 states—along with IllInois which has no senatorial contest—promise to furnish most of the vital results in the hotly-contested races which GOP leaders assert will give them control of the house. The Democrats sharply dispute these victory claims.

In the house, the Republicans now have 192 members. They need to retain all of these or equivalent districts and gain 26 for the 218 which marks a clear majority. The Democrats, with 235 members, could lose a net of 17 and still maintain control. There are six vacancies and two minor parties now represented among the 435 news places.
